

Reading Schedule for *Catcher in the Rye

You will be given a half an hour each class period to read and track character. That's a generous 1 to 1.5 hours each week. For many of you this will not be enough time to get through the assigned pages, so some of this reading/characterization chart entries will have to be done outside of school. You will be graded weekly based on characterization chart entries, and your active engagement with the book during each reading session. In other words, no phones, sleeping, talking with your neighbor, etc.
